

OUR CURRICULUM

PSED

Independent Individual

Who can follow the rules, be kind, caring and helpful. Who can work and play co-operatively, whilst respecting others' ideas and feelings. Select resources and manage their own personal needs to stay fit and healthy. Demonstrates self-direction and independence.

Communication & Language

Confident Communicator

Who listens to others, can actively participate in conversations asking questions and making comment. Express ideas and feelings using and understanding new vocabulary.

Maths

Master of Maths

Who can show persistence in approaching tasks, show a deep understanding of numbers 1-10. Recognise patterns, compare quantities and show some understanding of number problems.

Physical

Amazing Athlete

Who can demonstrate strength, balance and co-ordination whilst moving safely and confidently. Can run, jump, climb, hop, skip and dance whilst maintaining spatial awareness.
Who can hold a pencil correctly, Control small muscles in hands and co-ordinate hand-eye movement to use a range of tools.

Literacy

Radiant Reader

Who can talk about stories to adults and peers and know print carries meaning. Shows knowledge of the alphabet, enjoys and values reading. Understands the purpose of writing and can recognise and form some letters of their names.

Understanding of the world

Excellent Explorer

Who can show curiosity about the world, their community and care for the environment. Have an awareness of other cultures and beliefs, share and respect them.
Show understanding of past and present and differences between them.

Expressive Arts and Design

Colourful Creator

Who can choose and safely use resources, talk about what they have made and how they did it. Can retell stories, poems or dance with expression and confidence. Understand rhythm and be able to copy a pattern.